

I am opposed to Broadband over Power Line implementation. It will cause significant interference in the HF frequency spectrum. As an amateur radio operator, BPL will impair my ability to communicate on the HF amateur frequency bands. As a broadcast engineer, I believe it will also affect AM broadcast reception on the higher AM radio frequencies. I am also concerned that BPL will impact my telephone and DSL service, which is carried on the same poles along with power lines.

Jim Gantner
K4GT